GOLD BRICK

Made at Cape Girardeau, Mo., from a natural deposit of silica, near that place. The unusually fine quality of this silica renders it possible to make a scouring soap superior to anything on the market for general all-around cleaning.

Gold Brick is a new product that will solve an old problem.

TENNESSEE DEMOCRAT KILLED.

Doek Walton, a Farmer, Shot in Claiborne County.

Nashville, Tenn., Nov. 8.—Doek Walton, a farmer and a Democrat, has been shot and killed at his home in Claiborne County. He attended a political meeting recently, and, it is said, threatened several persons.

HOG CHOLERA.

Hog worms are often the starting of hog cholera. Keep the hogs clear of worms and they will not be so liable to take the disease. The Shoddy Remedy is no doubt the greatest worm remedy for hogs there is on the market. After a few doses of this remedy is fed you will see piles of worms lying around in your hog lots. It is the only remedy that will save hogs after they once take cholera.

N. R. Yost, Myerstown, Pa.; O. D. Hill, Kendall, Va.; J. E. Gibbons, Purcell, I. T.; L. P. Roy, Wadon, Ok., and thousands of others have cured their hogs of cholera with this remedy and say it certainly does the work when properly used.

It is cheap and easy to use. Any practical farmer can clear his herd of either worms or cholera and put them in perfect condition with it in a few days.

Shoddy's free book on hog cholera fully explains the trouble and will be sent free of charge, by return mail, to any hog raiser who will send his name and address to the Shoddy Remedy Co., Dept. 45, Alton, Ill. Every hog raiser should write at once for this free information.

PARKER HEARS VOTE WITH HIS FAMILY

Democratic Nominee Receives Returns in His Study by Messenger and Telephone.

NO PARTY LEADERS PRESENT.

Judge Sends Congratulatory Telegram to Roosevelt When Outcome Was Known and Obtained Speedy Reply.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL. Rosemont, Ill., Nov. 8.—Judge Parker and his family and a few friends from the neighborhood received the election returns in the Judge's study at Rosemont.

Bulletins were received by telegraph at the temporary station in the lodge and sent up to the house by messenger. Telephone messages were also continually received by the Judge from New York.

No Democratic leaders were present at Rosemont.

The little family party included Mrs. Parker, her married daughter, Mrs. Charles Mercer Hall; Father Hall, Miss Schoenmaker, the nominee's sister-in-law, and Arthur McCasland, his secretary.

Not many trips had been made up the hillside by the two little messenger boys before the trend of the general results of the State and national tickets were known. The first telegram bearing on the presidential election was from fourteen cities and towns in Massachusetts, giving Judge Parker 1,311 votes and Roosevelt 2,467 votes. The second came from Boston and showed a Democratic gain.

From that time on the returns came slowly. It was learned at 7 o'clock that Judge Parker's own election district gave him 1,311 votes and Roosevelt 2,467 votes. While still at the table he continued to receive dispatches up to 8 o'clock, when he left the table and went to his study.

From Democratic national headquarters a word reached him at half-past 8 o'clock conceding the election of President Roosevelt.

Judge Parker immediately dictated and sent off the following message: "Rosemont, Ill., Nov. 8, 8:30 p. m.—To the President, Washington, D. C.: The people by their votes have emphatically approved your administration and I congratulate you."

In less than two hours the following reply was received: "ALTON B. PARKER, White House, Washington, Nov. 8.—To Mr. Parker, Rosemont, Ill.: I thank you for your congratulations. THEODORE ROOSEVELT."

Judge Parker retired at 11:30 o'clock. According to his statement beyond that indicated by his telegram to President Roosevelt.

Through sleeper to Ogden and Salt Lake City, via Omaha and Union Pacific. Only forty-four and a half hours to Salt Lake City. Tickets and reservations at 100 Olive street.

JUDGE PARKER SPENT HALF MINUTE IN BOOTH.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL. Rosemont, N. Y., Nov. 8.—Judge Parker cast his vote this morning in the Third Election District of the Ninth Ward in Kingston. He was in the voting booth nearly half a minute, which was more than twice as long as the average voter, and from this fact several of the townsfolk, who observed him, argued, smilingly, that he must have voted a split ticket.

All through the town, barns and farmhouses were decorated with posters bearing the legends: "Stand by your neighbor. Vote for Judge Parker."

Laughing good naturedly, Judge Parker entered the polling place. He received his ballot from the ballot clerk, who asked his name.

"Alton B. Parker," replied the nominee.

"And your address?" replied the Judge, giving the address of the rectory of his son-in-law, the Rev. Theodore Roosevelt.

Half an hour with whom he makes his home when he stops in Kingston.

Entering a booth, Judge Parker remained there thirty seconds. He came out with his ballot folded and handed it to the inspector of elections, who deposited it in the box.

"Alton B. Parker votes ballot No. 167," a cheer arose from the clerks and spectators in the polling place. Judge Parker bowed and smiled, and walked out to rejoin his secretary, who voted in another district.

DYING SON ON BACK, PARENT RAN FIVE MILES.

Twelve-Year-Old Hunter, Mangled by Gunshot After Reaching the Hospital.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL. Philadelphia, Nov. 12.—As the result of a gunshot wound in his foot, caused by the accidental discharge of a weapon he was carrying, 12-year-old James Alexander Ashley, while hunting with his father and two older brothers near his home at Oxford, Pa., died at the University Hospital. Death was caused by loss of blood.

Young Ashley was climbing a fence, when the trigger of the gun caught in his right foot.

There being no medical assistance at hand, the father checked the flow of blood, and with the boy on his back, ran five miles to the Pennsylvania Railroad station.

The boy was put on the first train and brought to the hospital in this city, but he was so weak that the doctors were unable to revive him.

The father, suffering from the shock of his son's death and from fatigue, as the result of carrying the lad such a distance.
